HOWARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NO. 207 BROADWAY, CORNER OF PARK-PLACE, NEW-YORK.

THIS COMPANY, which has a large Capital, makes Insurance against LIFE-RISKS upon the most favorable terms, for the whole duration of Life, or a most limited period.

Looking rather to its future usefulness, than to any immediate benefit to policy-holders, the Company will pursue the same course as it has done at its creation. The contract will be with the Life Insurance Company, extending, it may be, into a series of years, too much prudence and care can hardly be exercised in the management of its affairs.

The Directors of the Company, in recommending the Company to all respects equal to its advantages and responsibility to any other respectable institution.

Parties insured have the privilege of crossing the Atlantic to Europe at all seasons; the Premiums will be charged extra.

EXTRA PERMITS will be granted for California, Australia, &c. Extra Indemnities, and other Foreign Ports, at a reduced rate of premium.
